DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On May 23, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that that D.E. developed an abscess requiring surgery as a result of his measles, mumps and rubella (“MMR”) vaccine, pneumococcal 13-valent conjugate (“PCV 13”) vaccine, hepatitis A (“Hep A”) vaccine, influenza (“flu”) vaccine, and varicella vaccine administered on October 13, 2016. Petition at 1-3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 12, 2017, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for right leg cellulitis and abscess. On March 26, 2018, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded should be awarded $39,405.26, consisting of pain and suffering in the amount of $35,000.00 and funds to satisfy a State of Georgia Medicaid lien in the final amount of $4,405.26. Proffer at 1-2.

In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards the following compensation:

- A. A lump sum payment of $35,000.00 representing compensation for D.E.'s pain and suffering in the form of a check payable to petitioner as guardian/conservator of the estate of D.E. for the benefit of D.E. No payment shall be made until petitioner provides the Secretary with documentation establishing her appointment as guardian/conservator of D.E.'s estate. If petitioner is not authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as guardian/conservator of the estate of D.E. at the time a payment pursuant to this Proffer is to be made, any such payment shall be paid to the party or parties appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as guardian(s)/conservator(s) of the estate of D.E. upon submission of written documentation of such appointment to the Secretary.
- B. A lump sum payment of $4,405.26, representing compensation for satisfaction of a State of Georgia Medicaid lien on D.E.'s behalf, payable jointly to petitioner and Petitioner agrees to endorse this payment to The Rawlings Company.

This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Nora Beth Dorsey
Chief Special Master

³ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.

I. Items of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner, on D.E.'s behalf, should be awarded $39,405.26, consisting of pain and suffering in the amount of $35,000.00 and funds to satisfy a State of Georgia Medicaid lien in the final amount of $4,405.26, which represents full satisfaction of any right of subrogation, assignment, claim, lien, or cause of action that the State of Georgia may have against any individual as a result of any Medicaid payments the State of Georgia has made on behalf of D.E. from the date of his eligibility for benefits through the date of judgment in this case as a result of his vaccine-related injury under Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

The proffered amount of $39,405.26 represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled on D.E.'s behalf under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a combination of lump sum payments as described below, and request that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:

A. A lump sum payment of $35,000.00 representing compensation for D.E.'s pain and suffering in the form of a check payable to petitioner as guardian/conservator of the estate of D.E. for the benefit of D.E. No payment shall be made until petitioner provides the Secretary with documentation establishing her appointment as guardian/conservator of D.E.'s estate. If petitioner is not authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as guardian/conservator of the estate of D.E. at the time a payment pursuant to this Proffer is to be made, any such payment shall be paid to the party or parties appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as guardian(s)/conservator(s) of the estate of D.E. upon submission of written documentation of such appointment to the Secretary.

B. A lump sum payment of $4,405.26, representing compensation for satisfaction of a State of Georgia Medicaid lien on D.E.'s behalf, payable jointly to petitioner and
